The Bucktail Council of the Boy Scouts of America invites you to be part of an event unlike any other in the Tri-County area.

The event is The Bucktail Classic, a golf tournament, but not just any old golf tournament.

The Bucktail Classic is a golf tournament that guarantees two cash prizes will be won. Yes, someone will win $1,000 cash and someone $500 cash. And, because this is the Boy Scouts Centennial, this tournament will also feature a contest on all 18 holes with a prize on each hole valued at $100 or more.

Here's why.

Support for the Council is necessary for it to continue as a solid and viable entity. So, we're making the golf tournament something really special. The Bucktail Council covers the counties of Cameron, Clearfield, Elk, Jefferson, and Western Centre, serving nearly 3,000 fine young men and leaders.

And we're reaching out to you to help support this outstanding cause.

You might remember the golf tournament for the Bucktail Council that was headed-up by Penn Traffic Corporation. For many years the Bucktail Council relied on the golf tournament, considered to be the top Boy Scout tournament in the entire country, as the primary source of funds used to expand and service.

Times have changed. Penn Traffic's sponsorship has virtually disappeared with the company itself. As a result, the golf tournament suffered a little.

Now, several prominent area businesspeople have taken the lead to help build the tournament into something special again. Making generous contributions themselves, these businesspeople made the decision to offer you guaranteed prizes for a putting contest and chipping contest. The post-tournament gathering will be topped off with a Pinecrest Country Club five-course meal. In addition, area car dealerships will compete for the Car Dealers Cup, and bankers for the Bankers Cup. And there are many more surprises not mentioned here.

We need your help. As you can see we want to reward you with a terrific golf tournament that offers all the fun, excitement and amenities you deserve for your generosity.

The following pages explain the tournament in more detail and the different ways you can participate in saving the Boy Scouts. An entry form is also attached. Thank you for your consideration. Not only is your generosity appreciated, it is desperately needed.

Sincerely,

Alan Reitz
Chairman
Bucktail Classic

PS. We understand there are many golf tournaments you can choose to support and your budgeted charitable dollars only go so far. However, if you can find a way to support the Bucktail Classic you would be helping a terrific group of fine young men from your area continue to serve our community.
