

Closing Ceremony: CUB SCOUT HISTORY

Directions: Cut out script into sheets and have scouts read.

#1 (holds magazine) It was in 1912 when the first Boys' Life was published.

#2 (holds banquet sign) As early as 1933, parents and Cub Scouts enjoyed the dinner we now call the Blue and Gold Banquet.

#3 (holds pinewood derby car) On May 15, 1953, the first pinewood derby was run and 55 Cub Scouts cheered their cars on.

#4 (holds raingutter regatta model) Cub Scouts started racing model sailboats in the 1950s.

#5 (holds space derby model) It was 1961 when the first space derby kits became available.

#6 (holds day camp shirt) In 1968 Cub Scout day camps were approved by the National Executive Board.

#7 In 2010, Cub Scouts all over America are still enjoying all these things as much as the Cub Scouts in the past.

ALL SCOUTS: Happy 100th Birthday, BSA!
